FIND OUT MORE ABOUT OUR PROPOSALS

The former Horley Library site has been selected specifically for the delivery of Supported Independent Living accommodation for people with a learning disability and/or autism, and will provide new homes for 16 residents:

 A two-storey block of six 1-bedroom self-contained flats, each with its own private garden or balcony

 A pair of semi-detached houses, each with five ensuite bedrooms and shared facilities.

You can find full details of our current proposals on our website HorleySIL.site

About Supported Independent Living

Surrey County Council is committed to increasing the availability of Supported Independent Living Accommodation by 2030 through collaboration with independent partners and the use of its own assets and resources. The proposal we are currently developing for Horley will be:

- Designed so that our residents can live their lives their own way.
- Created with their future in mind.
- Within the heart of the community.
- Designed to support and promote independence.

How to participate in our Q&A Events

You won't need to download any software. Simply scan the QR code (above right) or go to HorleySIL.site, which also contains further information on the proposals. You may want to register in advance of the session of your choice and ask your questions. You need only join one session, but you are welcome to join more if you wish.

The events will last between 30 and 90 minutes, depending on the number of questions received. If you have questions but cannot attend the sessions you can do so via the website and your questions will be answered. From Thursday 26 May midday all sessions will be able to be viewed in full at the website along with more information on the proposals.

Feedback Form

We want to know what you think about these proposals. As well as participating in our Q&A events you can contact us by email or freephone, or send us your feedback using this FREEPOST form. Tear along the perforated edge and take to any post box. No stamp is needed.
